Sir,

This is to bring to your kind knowledge that the Standing Committee of Legal Education Committee of Bar Council of India by virtue of its meeting held on 27th May, 2023 considered the matter of University College of Law, Mohanlal Sukhadia University, Udaipur, Rajasthan.

The Committee considered the inspection report of University College of Law, Mohanlal Sukhadia University, Udaipur, Rajasthan.

It reveals that Standing Committee in its meeting dated 16th & 17th Nov. 2019 sought clarification as to how University took admission in total seven sections in its three year LLB Course i.e. *420 students, which is more than the maximum intake of 5 sections @ 60 students per section totalling to 300 students, which was in contravention and violation of the maximum strength of sections sanctioned as per the Rules of Legal Education and is thus against the statutory rule.

It was also not clear what was the existing strength of its 3 year LL.B degree course prior to Legal Education Rules, 2008 coming into force.

University has clarified vide its letter dated 25th Feb. 2020 that the University had admitted more than 300 students till the session 2018-19 but from 2019-20 they have strictly restricted the intake to 300 students in it's three year LLB Course after BCI direction.

Office clarified that Bar Council of India had initially granted permission to it's three year LLB Course an intake of not exceeding 350 students in total and not more than 80 students in any section vide Letter Ref. No. LE (Cir.) No. 4/1979 dated 6th August 1979.

Further, the Standing Committee, after considering inspection report in its meeting dated 27th & 28th Sep. 2014 had granted extension of approval of affiliation for running three year LL.B course with an intake of one additional section along with existing strength of students and also granted approval of affiliation for it's five year BA LL.B course with an intake of one additional section along with existing strength of students upto the academic year 2016-17.

Now the University was inspected again and inspection report corroborates the facts that University is admitting only five sections in three year LLB course and two sections in Five year BA LLB Course.

Mohanlal Sukhadia University, Udaipur, Rajasthan is a State Government University and it has improved its infrastructure reasonably after last inspection.

It has total 28 furnished classrooms of very good size. The college has installed the projectors in most of the classrooms. University has a Library, which is rich in any respect. There are 1,25,000 books including law books, references, text books as well as journals in addition to separate Online Library with 10 computers having SCC, AIR, Manupatra etc;

The University has Moot Court, Legal Aid Clinic, Common Rooms etc. as per norms.
